Welcome to our Spring/Summer list,

Presented for your pleasure is one of the largest selections of auction catalogues ever offered by anyone. Our present stock exceeds 25,000 catalogues plus other reference materials. We feel fortunate to be able to offer this outstanding selection for your consideration.

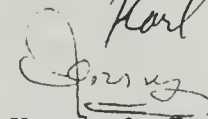

The "West Coast Hoard" represents 18,000 sales from some of the greatest cataloguers of the 20th century. The remaining catalogue stock and libraries from Bowers & Ruddy, Paramount, Abe Kosoff, Abner Kreisberg, James Kelly, and Wayte Raymond, make up the bulk; while most others are well represented.

It's quite exciting to open an original mailing envelope of a sale that was held in the 1940's or 50's and see a brand new catalogue inside. Equally exciting is having all 63 Bowers & Ruddy sales from 1972-'83 in mint condition, fresh from the box! We even have complete, new Bowers & Ruddy sets including the Adams 1794 Cents catalogue. This unique opportunity will be your chance to get the finest cataloguing in the best possible condition. You'll want to hurry on these - supply is limited.

We know you'll find something of interest. If there's something you really want, give us a call. Many times items get sold out within the 3-5 days it takes for your order to reach us through the mail.

As always, we appreciate your business and look forward to helping you enjoy numismatics.

Best wishes,

Karl & Jenny

THE CATALOGUES OF Q. DAVID BOWERS

The very first catalogue Dave Bowers wrote was for a sale held July 29, 1957. It contained 31 pages and 955 lots. He and partner Jim Ruddy established Triple Cities Coin Exchange; with an auction division called Penn-New York Auction Company. In 1964 they joined with James Kelly, Max Humbert, and Michael DiSalle to form Paramount International Coin Corporation.

Dave's cataloguing style really blossomed in 1965 when he did the comprehensive "Century Sale". He continued his cataloguing efforts until he left Paramount in April, 1967. When he and Jim Ruddy hooked up again in 1971 for the final time, the pair was destined to make numismatic history.

Bowers & Ruddy Galleries, in Hollywood, California, named their auction division The American Auction Association; the first eleven sales bear this name. A strong beginning with the Armand Champa Sale in 1972 led to success after success.

The four part Garrett Sales, 1979-'81, realized $25.4 million dollars. This was the record for an American coin auction for 16 years, until April 8, 1997, when the second Eliasberg Sale was completed. This new record will stand as a milestone for decades to come. The Bowers catalogues are indeed the premier sales by which all others are judged.

In the following list we have indexed each sale by 50 lot minimums. A qualifier was needed and 50 was the number chosen. Just because a certain series isn't listed doesn't mean there are no important coins included, just that there are not 50 of them. The index is just a guide to help you know what's inside.

The N.M. column on the B&R list denotes Near Mint condition. In most cases they are new from the box, but may exhibit some cover rub or slight corner bump from storage.

Great American Sales has acquired the remaining catalogue stock of Bowers & Ruddy Galleries from when Dave left California in 1982. In 1983, after Jim Ruddy's retirement from numismatics, Dave and long-time employee Ray Merena formed Bowers & Merena Galleries in Wolfeboro, NH.

Today Dave Bowers continues to consistently produce the finest catalogues in the field.

We know you'll be pleased with the quality of any Bowers sale you choose. The opportunity to choose from this many near mint Bowers & Ruddy catalogues will never happen again.

AND YES, EVEN A FEW COINS...

Having been a coin dealer back in the 1970's, I find it difficult to not buy some coins every once in a while. Webster defines a numismatist as one who studies and collects money and medals. So, with that in mind here's an interesting assortment for your consideration. 100% satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded -- no questions asked.

NICKELS

1939-S Uncirculated, 5 Steps, Rev. of 1938,

nice aqua & russet toning. First year of issue..... 195.

1845 Uncirculated - 60+, Full Strike,

DIMES

1842 Very Fine, Nice coin for little money.. 12.

1873 w/Arrows, Borderline Unc. - 58,
semi-Prooflike, possibly cleaned.
Scarce type..... 145.

1954-D Don't laugh, it looks like a Proof!
No frost on either side. Interesting.... 5.

R.E. HALF

example..... 160.

Just a few marks from a higher grade..... 35.

U.S. GOLD

QUARTER EAGLES

1846/3-0 An under publicized overdate.
Breen lists this as a 46/44, which is incorrect. Under a good glass the straight top line of the 3 is easily visible. The die used was the 1843-0 small date. Because it had been used on a high mintage run during 1843,
the details are somewhat mushy. This example grades Extra Fine with lots of lustre. The reverse die is rotated, as on all known examples..... 29

1852-0 Extra Fine, Golden toned lustre adds to the appeal of this "sleeper"..... 17

HALF EAGLE

1915-S Almost uncirculated. This is the rarest date of the series in higher grades.
Good lustre. Nice for the grade..... 27

MINT ERROR

1952-S Roosevelt Dime. CH.8U, Struck on a dished planchet. Interesting how the lustre catches the light..... 1

ELONGATED INDIAN CENTS

19?? Mount Rushmore Memorial. Lustrous
1907 Olympic Games 1932. Full details.
YOUR CHOICE.....10. ea

MICROSCOPE

15X,30X,45X TASC0. Your basic, inexpensive necessity. In like-new condition... 5

PENNYWEIGHT SCALE

Hamilton Model 35-P..... 1

If I heard it right, an 1883-0 Dollar just sold for 6 figures. That means if I could just get that Green Red 1958-D Lincoln in a "9" holder, I could sell it for 5 Grand in the next big sale - YEAH!

THERE'S MORE TO IT THAN JUST COINS!

Today's "marketplace" breaks down something like this:

- 90% is dealer dominated ads selling or buying "collector" coins or promoting their latest auction.
- 5% is the 3rd party grading services trying to solve the age-old dilemma, but for a fee, of course.
- 3% is the U.S. mint touting their latest offerings.

This leaves us with approximately 2%. Unfortunately, this represents the small number of people who are learning about numismatics in a scholarly manner by researching the past. These people are called numismatists.

Since this is a hobby or business about money, we should learn how to spend ours more wisely. Sure, you can go to any coin show and get quite an earful, but what have you truly learned: gossip, hearsay, opinion, or fact? The secret is to have a library filled with old auction catalogues and reference books. That's where knowledge comes from.

Great American Sales has one of the largest stocks of American coin catalogues for sale in the country; many sell for less than $10.00.

- The A.N.A. won't sell theirs;
- The A.N.S. won't sell theirs;
- Leading dealers won't sell theirs;

* B U T   W E   W I L L !! *

You can buy knowledge now, or pay dearly for the lack of it.

As always, we say "THANKS" to those who have ordered something. We hope you enjoy what we have to offer.

Sincerely,

Karl Moulton
